

Conical Peaks of Admiralty Strait, Tierra del Fuego.

site of more or less extensive expansion of the southern part of the Argentine zone, the most conspicuous of which is the Argentine zone, the Argentine zone or perhaps an account of the silver he covers there in such wood is the more towards the north end, the more the more in addition to well-wooded trees in. Perhaps certain cultivated trees are there, besides the common trees of which only scattered under bushes, and will state, are the European fruit trees, the wonderfully in this region, the orange left to itself a magnificent tree, and greater with greater height than any he grows proper south of the latitude as, the only substitute for which is a grows on the banks of the larger rivers. r is in the raising of live stock especially in the industry of sheep-keeping of French merino sheep and the French wool with such success, not only have since the leading industry of the Conceal have long been raised, and al by several dozens of goodly flocks regway, by the name of Gaucho. In handling of wild animals the lion and back of those countries of a long rope or to the middle and the other end, the rants, stone, or wood, two or three in equal length. In using the lion the it is necessary that the open nose will on to catch and in doing this he has to it swings the other or other round his hals at the animal, which is at once thrown past to catch. Such is the and that the Gaucho will often be full speed. The Argentine have a horse, wolf, and remarkable for its »Cattle-breeders are the European graziers though the paper is not white in the a few instances, among them the gele-actors previous, nearly the Argon-(Gaucho) Gaucho, a few jack-petrels seabirds of ocean, partridge (Oreotus magnum, and the American ostrich (or ostrich, etc.

 COMMERCIAL AND COMMUNITARIAN Colonization, about three-fourths of mainly carried on with the United States those countries sending a large share remaining two such receive a considerable the exception of wine and spirits, while about all the exports of the Conceal, the latter principally wool, li-Onions, feathers are also among the exported imports are wool and iron. Some manufactured within Argentine territory government, partly at that of the properly as that of private (English) commercial houses, 900 miles in length, 1 of letters annually carried by the post the population, the number of telegraph the telegraph. The monetary unit is The weight and measure in use are of PEOPLE, etc.—The settled population of whites, mestizos, and Indians, of the province, especially in the country districts, consists of people of mixed blood.
 Pure Negroes (descended ancestry from 1702 onwards), and pure civilized Indians are not numerous, and pure whites would also be few were it not for the considerable numbers which the Colonization derives from immigration. At the census of 1865 there were in Argentine territory 212,000 people of foreign birth, more than a sixth of the whole settled population. Of those about 100,000 were Indians, one-fifth American, one-third

Registro 16-522

Identificación

Institución

Museo Regional de Magallanes

Número de registro

16-522

Nº de inventario

2019 - DOC - 01

Clasificación

Historia - Libros y Documentos

Colección

Biblioteca Patrimonial MRM

Objeto

Grabado

Creador

Desconocido/a

Dimensiones

Alto 17,4 cm - Ancho 11,3 cm

Técnica / Material

Papel

Título

Conical Peaks of Admiralty Strait, Tierra del Fuego

Descripción

Documento monocromo en blanco y negro de formato rectangular y orientación vertical con impresión de imagen en disposición central de formato rectangular disposición vertical. Composición en base a paisaje. Vista en ángulo picado de gran cuerpo de hielo en el espacio central. Hacia el extremo inferior izquierdo, un montículo rocoso sobre el que se dispone un árbol. Bajo la esquina superior izquierda se asoma un monte de perfil romo. Texto impreso en la esquina inferior izquierda. En reverso se encuentra información impresa y puede observarse que el documento era parte de un impreso de mayor tamaño que fue recortado.

Estado de conservación

Bueno

Gestión

Adquisición

Forma de ingreso

Compra

Procedencia

Antiqua Print Gallery Ltda.

Fecha de ingreso

2016-02-18

Registradores

Sebastian Armando Vera Vivanco, 2019-05-15

